

THE
VADA KINMAN OLDFIELD SCHOLARSHIP

- FOR WHOM: Any Nebraska high school senior who will graduate.
- WHAT: Writing an essay using not over one thousand words with the subject being “WHY THIS NEBRASKA VETERAN SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED AND HONORED.”
- To qualify, the Veteran to be written about must have been honorably discharged and been born and raised in Nebraska or lived the majority of his/her life in Nebraska.
- There must be a title sheet with the essay with the student’s name on it; no student’s name on the essay.
- PROCEDURES: Initial screening of entries to be done by teachers at the school of origin. The best two entries from each school will be sent to the North Platte Public Library; 120 West 4th Street; North Platte, NE 69101; Attn: VADA KINMAN OLDFIELD SCHOLARSHIP. Entries must be postmarked no later than October 1st in the year they are to be judged.
- JUDGING: Judging will be done by qualified people living in Nebraska and the decision of the judges will be final.
- WINNER/WINNERS: There will be one winner but not over two winners depending on the decision of the judges.
- The winner receives two thousand dollars. If there are two winners, each will receive one thousand dollars.
- The winner/winners will be announced during the Veterans’ Day Ceremony in November in their home town, the year prior to their graduation. The award will be presented to the winner/winners at the school’s Honors Day Ceremony or graduation.
- The prize money will be sent for tuition to the college of the student’s choosing, after graduation.

Dr. Dwight L. Larson