

Four States Irrigation Council Scholarship Program

The Four States Irrigation Council announces the availability of a $2,000 one-year scholarship for a qualified student interested in a career in irrigation or water related fields and currently enrolled at an accredited University or College in the state of Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska or Wyoming. The scholarship will provide $1,000 for the Fall '17 term and $1,000 for the Spring '18 term.

Applications must be received by June 9, 2017. The application form and submission instructions can be found at: www.4-states-irrigation.org. The award will be announced by August 21, 2017.

Criteria:

- Students must be currently enrolled in good standing at a College or University in Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas or Wyoming, pursuing an associate or bachelor degree.
- Students must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0.
- Students must have one year of education left before their graduation date.
- Students must submit a minimum of one letter of recommendation from a professor in their current area of study.

Preference given to:

- Students pursuing a degree program in agricultural water and/or irrigation-related fields of study.
- Students interested in pursuing a career in agricultural water and irrigation-related fields.
- Students who demonstrate leadership and promise in agricultural or water-related careers.

Four States Irrigation Council will waive registration fees for all scholarship applicants who would like to attend the Annual Meeting, January 9-10, 2018, at the Fort Collins Hilton.

Scholarship winners are encouraged to attend the Annual Four States Irrigation Council Meeting and may request travel support and lodging.
