Political trailblazer Helen Boosalis is the inspiration for a scholarship to benefit democratic women students. The Inspiring Women Scholarship, established in 2009 following Boosalis' death, will be awarded to three women; one from each congressional district in Nebraska.

Helen Boosalis was an inspiration to Nebraska Women. The Nebraska Democratic Women's Caucus (NDWC) wanted to find a way to honor her while encouraging tomorrow's female political leaders. The $500 scholarship will go to three Democratic Nebraska women who are active in their communities and progressive politics.

Application Process

Applications for the $500 Scholarship are limited to Nebraska Democratic women who are graduating from high school and will be attending college in 2017 or those who are continuing in higher education. Applicants are asked to submit an essay of up to 500 words about a female democratic politician or community activist who inspired their own community service and political involvement.

Essays should be submitted by July 1 to the NDWC at ndpwomenscaucus@gmail.com. For questions about the scholarship, please contact Candra Guenther at 402-372-2928. The scholarship will be presented at the Inspiring Women Luncheon held each year at the Country Club of Lincoln, in Lincoln on August 4, 2017.
